The Chairman opened the meeting with a brief statement indicating that the purpose of the meeting was to hear from Dr. James L. Jones, Director, Office of Youth Opportunity Services, who briefed the members of the Committee on the department's needs and goals and program operations. His presentation included a film documentary designed to familiarize viewers with the mission of the YOS office and its operation.

The film, shot on location at several sites around the community, dealt with the need to develop more meaningful after school activities in order to reduce unacceptable social behavior, to bolster greater participation in program development by young people and to seek solutions to the youth job problem. In addition, the film cited specific program models which have been determined successful; The N.E. Teenage Night Club was an example.

During the viewing of the film, Dr. Jones pointed out:

(1) The Office of YOS was established in 1968. Its mission is to provide cultural, skill-development, recreational and social programs for young people to help them become involved in running the city,

(2) Young people are invited to participate in the formation, organization and operation of the local Neighborhood Planning Committee -- involvement in the total process of participation; voting, office holding, writing of proposals and selection of staff, etc.

(3) Philosophically, the Office of Youth Opportunity Services believes that:

(a) the community decides what programs it wants;

(b) Youth should participate in the selection of staff

(c) Youth should participate in the selection of sites

(d) Youth should participate in the evaluation of programs

(e) Youth participate in the making of changes

(4) Unfortunately, youth interest is often difficult to capture. Priorities of many young people seem to be directed in other directions-- a basketball game or dance may take precedence over participation in the formation of programs.

(5) Few youth programs are designed for girls. This seems to be true of youth programs throughout the country.

(6) The job situation for the young is critical. Youth demand for job opportunities and the follow-up of job application in the YOS program is weak. This is a problem which must be addressed.

(7) YOS has a budget which includes:

$2,000,000 appropriated funds from D.C. Government
$1,200,000 grant for community-based programs
$6,000,000 for summer programs for youth .

(8) In the area of juvenile delinquency and its control, YOS operates a 24-hour youth program, the Courtesy Patrol and the Street Academy for drop-outs.

(9) Coordination of the work of the YOS with other agencies which serve youth has been criticized. Attempts to resolve this problem have been initiated through workshops which provide opportunities for the various agencies that serve youth to share information, ideas and suggestions as well as develop some basis for community participation.

(10) Office of Youth Opportunity Services has been successful in reducing administrative overhead and uses funds saved to double jobs for young people.

(11) The two Neighborhood Centers are staffed with medical, dental and other professionals to provide services to youths. (These two centers located at the old No. 10 Precinct Station and on 55th Street, N.E. are funded by grants.)

In response to questions from Mr. Hobson about the establishment of other centers, Dr. Jones expressed the hope of establishing at least two more so that there would be one in each quadrant of the city.

According to Dr. Jones and Mr. James Woodward the efforts of the YOS program have resulted in some improved relationship between the 6th District Police Headquarters and the YOS, Police have utilized the service of the program to secure temporary shelter for residents. Cooperative efforts have lead to a greater mutual recognition and support.

Among the serious problems encountered in the day to day operations is the lack of participation by a sufficient number of residents and the development of cliques.

Allocation of funds are based on the population to be served. Tightening of programs from an administrative point of view is often seen as usurpation of power in the local community, but it is often the result of the failure by local staff to conform to proposal design, and to follow administrative procedures.

Technical assistance is given to local staff to improve programs, but measures are taken to insure accountability and some evaluation of effort.

Mrs. Hardy suggested that local staffs need support rather than termination and suggested that Dr. Jones look into this area of criticism.

Questions from Mr. Spaulding dealt with interface between YOS and other community agencies and the problem of duplication. Dr. Jones explained that local governmental and community organizations are notified of the meetings. Since NPC's are made up of local residents and agency representatives, the YOS programs respond to community requests and it becomes very difficult to say to the recommending NPC that a program legitimately requested cannot be approved without causing the NPC to lose its credibility and integrity. Essentially, the more effective the NPC is, the better the program.

Suggestions were made for improvement of program evaluation, and for improved training of NPC members.

Meeting was adjourned with thanks from the Chairman at 12:30 p.m.

Dear Sir:

Herewith is a letter dated Dec. 13, 1974 to the Mayor of our city. In reading this letter you will see where I am requesting the Mayor for some kind of consideration in a matter that has to do with an inmate in the Department of Corrections. This letter to the Mayor will tell you that I am in need of help.

The Mayor has not made any reply to my letter. I feel very bad about him not giving me the respect of making a reply to my letter. We now have what is called self government. What is this self government for if we cannot get the officials to respect the rights of every man and woman of this new government. The law is on our side, therefore, we must do what is right and just. ###

I pray that you will look into this matter for me and my committee. Thank you.

Mayor Walter E. Washington
District of Columbia Government

Washington, D.C. 20004

Dec. 13, 1974

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I am respectfully writing this letter because I am very concerned about Elroy X. Lewis, who is an inmate in the Department of Corrections Minimum Security Facility.

My concern is about Elroy not being permitted to participate in his Black Muslim Religious program and a work training program in the community. Before the Department of Corrections put a stop to the furlough programs, Elroy and other Muslim inmates were permitted to visit their Religious Temple every Sunday. I am told by officials of the Department of Corrections, that the Muslims are the most trustworthy men in their Department.

You never read in the newspapers where any Muslim follower of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad has violated any law or the trust that the Department of Corrections has put in them. The Muslim's record will show that they are not a threat to the community. Therefore, I cannot understand why Elroy and the other Muslims are not permitted to go back into the community on their program. I hope that you will look into this matter for me.

Mr. Washington, I would now like to talk to you about a work program for Elroy X. Lewis. Elroy is no longer being considered for a work program because it is stated that he did not come within the new guidelines of the Department of Corrections. These new guidelines state that a person must complete eighty percent of his Minimum Sentence. Elroy has been in confinement for about 9 years. The Department of Corrections permitted him to participate in his Religious and work program for about a year and a half. This was before the furloughs were stopped.

These new guidelines state that an "inmate will be eligible for these programs only under Exceptional Circumstances and that this requirement may be met only when the resident (1) has demonstrated complete institutional adjustment; (2) is strongly motivated to benefit from the program; and (3) is considered to have exceptional potential for rehabilitation. On the basis of a psychological evaluation, that the inmate's release from the institution would not constitute a danger to the community."

It is an absolute fact that Elroy have demonstrated a complete institutional adjustment. Read the letters herewith from officials of the Department of Corrections and from the trial judge in Elroy's criminal case. These records or letters will give you some knowledge as to Elroy's adjustment. Because Elroy adjusted so well, Mr. D.C. Jackson had him put in minimum Security.

A psychological evaluation have just been took on Elroy. Not only have Elroy benefited from the Correctional work program, but his family have benefited from Elroy's working. Let me tell you just some of the ways how we have benefited from this program: As a Muslim Follower of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad, we believe in doing something for our self. I was not able to put children in our school before Elroy started working.

I did not have the money to do the things I needed to do for my children. My home was in a very bad condition, this was because I did not have a man around to help me. I would be very happy if you or someone from your staff would come and see my home now. Elroy and his family have truly benefited from the Correctional work program.

Mr. Washington, in a few more months, we are going to have a new member (baby) in our family. This new baby is coming into the world because the Department of Correction permitted Elroy to participate in community furloughs. If I ever needed help, I need it now. I have two other children and many bills that must be taken care of while I am having this baby.

As you must know, women in the Nation of Islam do not believe in taking money from the Government. We try to do for our self. Having this new baby, I will not be able to do for myself. This information should give you some knowledge as to why Elroy must be put back on some work program. The record will show that Elroy is not a danger to the community.

Elroy's case should and must be said to be Exceptional. There is much more that I can say and will say if Elroy needs any more support in this matter. It is my hope that you will personally look into this matter. We have sent letters to the Department of Corrections, and their reply is herewith.

I thank you for the time that you have given to this matter.

Very Truly Yours,

Re: Lewis, Elroy X.
DCDC#126532

Dear Ms. Lewis:

We are in receipt of your correspondence of November 25, 1974 in reference to Resident Elroy X. Lewis who is presently housed at the Minimum Security Facility.

In researching Mr. Lewis' record, we contend that this resident's institutional and community adjustment has been very favorable since his commitment to the Department of Corrections. However, Mr. Lewis does not meet the other criteria in reference to total time served on his minimum sentence of twenty years. At this juncture, Mr. Lewis has served eight (8) years and seven (7) months of his minimum sentence, which includes six hundred and forty (640) days in custody prior to sentencing. Mr. Lewis must complete eighty (80) percent of his minimum sentence, or sixteen (16) years, so as to fall into the prescribed criteria.

We are pursuing other avenues for criteria for the furlough program and we assure you that Mr. Lewis will be considered should our efforts be accepted by the parties responsible for overseeing this operation.

Councilman, District of Columbia
907 4th Street, S.W.
Washington, D.C. 20024

Dear Councilman Hobson:

The International Brotherhood of Police Officers (IBPO), as the certified representative of officers and sergeants of the D.C. Metropolitan Police Department, wishes to bring to your attention a situation which is seriously affecting the morale of the members of the force.

Under the administration of the former chief, Jerry V. Wilson, men and women of the department were permitted to wear their hair in a length and style contemporary with other citizens in their age and sex peer groups.

Unfortunately, former Acting Chief John S. Highes saw fit on November 29, 1974, to issue new standards revising the criteria governing the personal appearance of the police officers. The result is that many officers now are faced with the prospect of disciplinary action, up to and including separation from the force, if they insist on exercising their right to continue wearing their hair in what were previously acceptable lengths or styles.

This situation is causing widespread unrest and disillusionment among the officers, who almost unanimously feel that such restrictions constitute an unwarranted invasion of their right to determine for themselves how they shall wear their hair.

This situation is compounded by the fact that D.C. firefighters, who also make up a category of uniformed D.C. Government employees, are not subject to such arbitrary restrictions. A visitor to virtually any station house in the District can observe firefighters whose hair length far exceeds that worn by any D.C. police officer.

ius W. Hobson, Sr.
December 17, 1974

The IBPO, in its efforts to establish the right of its members to wear their hair as they wish, filed suit in Federal District Court. This action was dismissed by Judge Richey for lack of jurisdiction, and we now are preparing an action for filing in D.C. Superior Court, where no jurisdictional problem appears to exist.

It seems to us that the newly-elected D.C. City Council is in a position to bring some common-sense and equity to this controversy by immediately, upon its installation next month, voting to eliminate that portion of the uniform and personal appearance order which restricts the officers' hair length and style.

Authority for Council action in this regard is set forth in Title IV, Section 121, which provides that "...the District of Columbia Council is hereby authorized to make and modify, and the Commissioner of the District of Columbia is hereby authorized and empowered to enforce, under such penalties as the Council may deem necessary, all needful rules and regulations for the proper government, conduct, discipline and good name of said Metropolitan Police force..."

Such action on the part of the City Council would eliminate a point of much dissatisfaction and dissension among the members of the department and also would forestall a long and acrimonious legal struggle in the courts.

We would be happy to meet with you at your convenience to discuss this proposal.

Sincerely,

Alan J. Whitney

City Hall, 14th and E Streets, N.W. Room 507 638-2223 or Government Code 137-3806

To Council Members of the Education, Recreation and Youth Affairs Committee
From Julius W. Hobson, Chairperson
Date January 20, 1975
Subject Committee Meeting, January 17, 1975

PARTICIPANTS:

Committee Chairperson, Julius W. Hobson

Committee Members: Mrs. Willie Hardy
Mr. William Spaulding

Council Staff: Lou Aronica, Committee Staff
Paul Sanders Brown, Executive Assistant
Lorraine McCottry, Administrative Assistant

Others: Mrs. Alice Finlayson, League of Women Voters of D.C. and D.C. Citizens for Better Public Education
Ms. Debbie Seigler, D.C. Statehood Party
Walter Pinkney, Association of Substitute Teachers

Mr. Hobson opened the informal meeting with the statement that this was the first official meeting of the Education and Youth Affairs Committee. He indicated that rules of procedure would conform closely to the suggested general rules of procedures for Committees now being drafted by Chairman Tucker.

It was established that the Committee would hold regular meetings every Thursday at 10:30 a.m. The chairperson would notify other committee members by Tuesday should there not be sufficient business to hold a regular meeting.

Mr. Hobson indicated that he would invite the heads of the various departments in the area of Education, Recreation and Youth Affairs to come to the regular meetings and brief the members and staff of the committee on their respective departments, concentrating on programs and budgets.

The Committee members indicated that this would be very useful. Mrs. Hardy expressed her concern with the program overlap between the Department of Recreation and the Office of Youth Opportunity Services. She stated that attention should be given to the duplication of services. She would like to know whether Youth Opportunity Services programs were designed for the development of marketable skills of its participants and whether participants are allowed to attend school and remain in their programs.

Mrs. Hardy also asked that a request be directed to the Director of the Library to make the library conference rooms available to the public for longer hours in the evening. The current Library policy has these conference rooms closing promptly at 9:00 p.m. and the people using these facilities are often rudely told to leave. In many cases the public meetings which take place there most often last as late as 10:30 p.m.

The Committee indicated it would like to have copies of the current budgets of each department as well as organizational charts.

Mr. Walter Pinkney, President of the Substitute Teachers Association, D.C. Public Schools, addressed the Committee in regard to the amending of the D.C. Code, Title 696, regarding the pay of substitute teachers. His organization would like for substitute teachers to come under the umbrella of the Teachers Salary Act in order for substitutes to receive pay increases.

Mr. Spaulding asked Mr. Pinkney to submit to the Committee or to the Council his request in writing. Mr. Hobson said a memorandum would be sufficient.

Mr. Hobson indicated that Dr. James Jones, Director of the Youth Opportunities Services Office, would be invited to brief the Committee at the meeting on Thursday, January 23, 1975. Mr. Spaulding mentioned that he hoped that the Committee could receive an analysis of all youth serving programs. Mr. Hobson said he thought this would come with the briefing from Dr. Jones and the questions that would follow.

Mr. Hobson asked Committee members if they had or wished to make any recommendations for personnel to be assigned to the Education, Recreation and Youth Affairs Committee. Both Mrs. Hardy and Mr. Spaulding felt that this should be the prerogative of the Chairperson, but wished to be informed as to his decisions.

STATEMENT BY COUNCILMEMBER AT LARGE JULIUS W. HOBSON
Made to Mary Cliff of WETA radio

I am in favor of giving the District of Columbia the same right of representation in the Congress which the other States already possess.

However, I do not believe that representation should be granted through a Constitutional Amendment. The District of Columbia must be granted Statehood in the same manner that the other 50 States have been admitted into the union. Only in this way is it possible for the people of Washington, D.C. to gain the full rights of citizenship which the rest of the people in the United States have.

THEORY

The theory of the present experiment is based on the fact that the rate of change of the concentration of a substance in a solution is proportional to the concentration of the substance itself. This is expressed by the following equation:

$$\frac{dC}{dt} = -kC$$

where C is the concentration of the substance, t is time, and k is the rate constant.

The rate constant k is a measure of the speed of the reaction. It is determined by the nature of the reactants and the conditions of the reaction. The rate constant is independent of the concentration of the reactants.

The rate of change of the concentration of a substance in a solution is proportional to the concentration of the substance itself. This is expressed by the following equation:

$$\frac{dC}{dt} = -kC$$

Dear Mrs. Sizemore:

Enclosed are two pieces of correspondence from Mrs. Mary E. Williams both dated January 9, 1975.

The first letter concerns a discipline problem which her son has experienced at the Weatherless Elementary School.

The second, which is self explanatory, concerns the general conditions that exist at the same school.

Could you, please, look into these two matters and respond so that I may reply to a constituent.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Attached is the SF 171 for Anthony Gerald Eddins. I would very much like to have Mr. Eddins appointed to the staff of the D.C. Motor Pool and assigned to me. Since I am unable to drive my car I urgently need the assignment of a chauffeur to assist me.

I certainly appreciate your assistance in getting Mr. Eddins on board as soon as possible.

Subject Questions Raised at the January 7 Staff Meeting

The following are some answers to questions raised at the January 7 Staff Meeting:

1. Supplies

We are in the process of making a mass purchase of supplies and would like to include your requests in this order. I would appreciate it if each administrative assistant would send me a list of supplies needed for your staff as soon as possible. A GSA catalogue is available at Joe Plater's desk.

Equipment requests must be matched against funds and account balances and will be considered individually by priority where funds can be identified.

2. Telephones

Because of the limitations on the number of telephones that may be supplied to Council Members and their staff, I would appreciate your informing me of any special requests that you may have so that we can match them against the physical limitations of the phones.

In order to acquaint the new staff with the features of the telephone system, we have scheduled two orientation sessions for tomorrow (Jan. 9) at 11:00 and 4:00 in the Council Chambers.

3. Bell Boys

We are looking into the availability of additional bell boys and will keep you informed of our progress.

The dictaphones on the walls in some of the offices have been inoperative for several years and are scheduled to be removed.

5. Motor Pool

Council Members and their staffs may use the facilities of the Motor Pool for official business. Call Ext. 4418 approximately ten minutes before departure time. Round trips are available but cars will only wait ten minutes.

We are in the process of getting schedules for the shuttle bus.
